

ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

Within a short time work will be started on a new railway station in Poulney.

Three large cars of Indiana limestone have arrived for the new federal building that is being erected in Brattleboro.

Twenty-four deaths, 29 communicable diseases and 12 marriages were recorded in Rutland during the month of August.

Bennett C. Douglass, formerly of Richmond, has assumed his new duties as superintendent of the school union in Brandon.

John O'Donnell of Bellows Falls, a 1914 graduate of Norwich university, will teach sciences at St. Michael's college in Winoski the coming school year.

The loss of John R. Hill's buildings in Johnson by fire recently was the most destructive fire the village has had since the woolen mills were destroyed in 1871.

Wild Bill Fleming, American welter-weight champion, of Oldtown, Me., and Joe Azedo, a Portuguese strong man, are matched for a boxing match to be held in Brattleboro September 22.

Charles G. Richardson of Springfield, seriously injured as the result of a collision in which his bicycle and an automobile figured, has been taken to a hospital in Hanover, N. H., for X-ray treatment.

Captain Fred Jones and Thomas O'Brien, members of the Rutland high school track team, won first and second respectively in the half-mile events at the annual athletic meet in Lansingburg, N. Y.

Aquilla A. Darling of Hyde Park has entered suit in Windham county court for divorce from Mary Darling. They were married in Craftsbury, Feb. 1, 1912. He alleges statutory offenses besides intolerable severity.

Charles Mosley of St. Albans, who was sentenced to the house of correction in Rutland for vagrancy a few weeks ago, died there Tuesday. Mosley was taken seriously ill while being accompanied to Rutland.

Charles Dow Clark, a St. Albans boy, is now in the cast of the production, "Young America," by Cohan & Harris at the Astor theatre in New York. Mr. Clark plays the part of "Jim Reuter" and is well spoken of by critics.

Rev. Mr. Barnard of Bradford was in Jericho Sunday and officiated in a church where he was formerly the pastor. During the services a memorial tablet, the gift of the Stevens children, was unveiled in memory of Deacon and Mrs. Stevens.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Carpenter, for 40 years prominent residents of Newfane, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary this week. Mr. Carpenter is a veteran of the Civil war, having served in the 11th Vermont infantry and the heavy artillery.

Edward J. Read, whose death occurred in Danby at the age of 81, was a member of the state legislature in 1878, a selectman of the town 30 years, justice of the peace 35 years and postmaster 17 years, receiving his appointment with the incoming of the McKinley administration.

Hornets, horse and driver were implicated in a Brattleboro runaway Tuesday, when the former, in a big swarm, attacked a horse owned by the W. F. Richardson company. The hornets drove the horse mad and sometime elapsed before it could be quieted.

The 41st annual convention of the Vermont Woman's Christian union will be held in the Methodist church in Barton September 8 to 10. The national president, Miss Anna A. Gordon of Evanston, Ill., is expected to be present. Everyone is cordially invited.

Sereno E. Pratt of New York City, a native of Vermont, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce in the metropolis and former editor of the Wall Street Journal, was removed to a hospital in Troy, N. Y., after he had been taken seriously ill at his summer home in Dorset.

Emile Savard, alias "Winooski Pete," was sentenced in Ludlow this week by Judge H. H. Blanchard of Springfield to serve not less than six months in the house of correction for a breach of the peace offense, the case growing out of an altercation which the respondent had with Harley Duclou.

Several rare orchids were recently shown in the Fairbanks museum at St. Johnsbury. Among these was the prairie white-fringed orchid, which is known to grow in only one place in Vermont. New stations for ragged fringed orchids and slender ladies' tresses have been discovered in Caledonia county.

Fern picking in Stamford, William Dunn and Joseph Parent saw signs of a bear. Proceeding guns, they started in search of berries and soon saw him emerging from a clump of bushes. Dunn fired. In attempting to reload his shooting iron he dropped his cartridges. Parent, seeing his companion's predicament, distracted the bear until Dunn had time to reload and dispatch the animal. Now the pair are searching for the bear's mate.

A circus showing in Hardwick the other day served to clear up the mystery surrounding the disappearance of Homer Wilson, a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson. Nothing had been heard of Wilson since his disappearance as a boy 17 years ago. He was with the circus and even after a neighbor who knew him as a child recognized him. He denied his identity. When other people recognized him he admitted that he is Homer Wilson. After that he visited his two brothers and a sister and will visit his parents, who now live in Massachusetts. Once before he had been in Hardwick with a circus, but on the first occasion no one recognized him.

How to Keep Well

For Acid Stomachs Use Magnesia

The almost universal use of magnesia by physicians and specialists in the treatment of stomach troubles, is due to the fact that it stops food fermentation and neutralizes the acid—the direct cause of nearly all stomach troubles. Of the many forms of magnesia such as oxides, citrates, carbonates, sulphates, etc., the most suitable and efficient, and the one prescribed by leading specialists, is bismerate magnesia, a teaspoonful of which in a little warm water immediately after eating will instantly neutralize the acid, stop fermentation, and thus ensure painless normal digestion. Care should be taken to get bismerate magnesia, as its action is infinitely more effective. It is also, by the way, usually stocked by druggists in convenient compressed tablets as well as in the ordinary powder form. Stomach auffers and dyspepsia who follow this plan and avoid the use of pepper, charcoal, soda, mint, drugs and medicines, are invariably astonished to find that the stomach, relieved of the irritating acid and gas, soon regains its normal tone, and can do its work alone without the doubtful aid of artificial stimulants. ## DENNIS—COLGATE.

Wedding at Bride's Summer Home in Bennington.

Bennington, Sept. 2.—Miss Margaret West Colgate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Colby Colgate of New York, and Miss Susan E. Dennis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Dennis of Morristown, N. J., were married at Ben Venue, the summer home of the bride's parents at Old Bennington, at high noon yesterday. Rev. Edward D. Tibbitts, rector of All Saints church at Hoosick Falls, an uncle of the bride, was the officiating clergyman.

Miss Susan E. Colgate, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Misses Hope H. Colgate, a sister, Florence Colgate, a cousin, Dorothy Perkins, Dorothy Freeman, Elizabeth Kendall, Louise Kellogg and Katherine Patterson of New York. Estelle Farrell of Ansonia, Conn., Dorothy L. Sell of Troy and Dorothy Dennis, a sister of the bridegroom, of Morristown, Miss Evelyn Colgate, a sister, was flower girl.

Hyatt Wight of Baltimore was best man and the ushers were Van Santvoord Merle-Smith, William Scott Pyle, James Christy Bell, Jr., Samuel Dennis Bell, George W. Perkins, Jr., and Henry A. Colgate of New York. Matthew Gault of Baltimore, Samuel Reed of Pittsburg, Frederick Wayne of Indianapolis and James B. Walker of Chicago.

The bride's gown was of white georgette crepe de chine over white satin with pearl trimmings. Her court train was trimmed with Brussels point lace, an old family heirloom, and her veil which fell to the end of the train was held in place by a lace cap. Her bouquet was of maiden hair fern.

Miss Susan E. Colgate's gown was of lace trimmed white tulle over crepe and her bouquet gladioli of mixed colors.

The bridesmaids wore white tulle draped over crepe de chine with double girdles of coral pink satin. They wore boules hats and carried sheath bouquets of coral pink gladioli.

Miss Evelyn Colgate wore white tulle over crepe de chine with pink satin sash and carried the customary basket of flowers. Mrs. James C. Colgate wore net over dark blue.

Immediately following the service which took place on the east veranda, a wedding breakfast was served the bridal party and guests. Later in the afternoon, there was a reception which was largely attended by members of the summer colony at Old Bennington and family friends from this village.

AFTER BARRE'S TRUMPET.

Sixteen Horse Companies Enter Competition at Rutland.

Rutland, Sept. 2.—Entries for the contests at the Vermont state firemen's tournament to be held in this city Labor day closed at noon yesterday. Chief James C. Dunn of the local fire department has at hand the names of 17 horse companies and eight steam companies which will compete for prizes. In addition to these the Rutland department will turn out for a parade which will be given in the evening as the closing event of the meet. The locals will not compete for any prizes.

The horse companies entered are as follows: Dwyer, West Rutland, 17 men; Granite City, Barre, 20; Barre City, Barre, 18; Poulney, Poulney, 20; Boxer, Burlington, 17; Putnam, Bennington, 20; Alder, Chester, 20; Mass., 17; Volunteer, Vergennes, 22; H. H. Brown, West Rutland, 17; North Adams, North Adams, Mass., 17; Yosemite, Chester, 60; Steamer, Vergennes, 20; Miller, Hoosick Falls, N. Y., 18; Steamer No. 1, Winooski, 30; Marion, Salem, N. Y., 17.

The engine companies entered are: Union, Greenfield, N. Y., 60 men; Rough and Ready, Greenfield, 60; Pacific, Manchester, 80; Union, Salem, N. Y., 100; Washington, Middlebury, 60; North Adams, 60; Boxer, Burlington, 60; Hoosick Falls, Hoosick Falls, N. Y., 70.

The prize in the engine contest amounts to $225 and in the horse races $400, there being four premiums in each contest. A silver trumpet goes to the Vermont horse company making the best time. Barre took it last year. It has been won previously by Barre, Winooski, Johnson and Vergennes. The company winning it three times will own it.

ADMIT CATTLE STEALING.

Marlboro Men Heavily Fined in Brattleboro Court.

Brattleboro, Sept. 2.—Perle LaFogg and Harry Collins of Marlboro pleaded guilty yesterday before Judge Frank E. Barber in the municipal court to stealing a red heifer, the property of Ernest Wade, which they took from the pasture of David Goodell in Marlboro, Aug. 18. The animal was sold to Carl Schorling, a Brattleboro meatman, for $27.50. LaFogg was sentenced to not less than five nor more than six months in the house of correction at Rutland and to pay a fine of $100 and costs. Collins was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs.

Sheriff C. E. Mann and Deputy Sheriff Frank P. Wellman, who arrested the men, have been assisting the Massachusetts authorities for some time in an effort to run down cattle thieves who stole four head of cattle owned by H. D. Root of Colrain last July. The thieves made two trips and took two cows from the pasture on each occasion. Three of these, it developed, were sold to Schorling and one to Henry G. Clark of this town.

LaFogg and Collins each admitted these thefts from Wade, at an inquest held yesterday before Judge F. B. Pier. Wade is a brother-in-law of Collins. The Massachusetts authorities are determined to secure the custody of the men and it is probable, if Collins obtains the money to pay his local fine, that he will be taken in charge for the Massachusetts authorities.

ACCUSED OF LARCENY.

Edward Collins Charged with Stealing $30 in Pocketbook.

Rutland, Sept. 2.—Edward Collins, also known as Edward Riekey, employed in this city, was arrested yesterday by Policeman Thomas C. Elworth on a warrant issued on complaint of State's Attorney C. V. Poulin charging him with larceny from the person. It is alleged that he stole from Fred Broad of Sudbury on July 5, 1915, a pocketbook containing $30.

According to the story told the prosecuting attorney, Collins, Broad and others were in an automobile July 5, returning from New York state, Collins sitting in the same seat with Broad. Collins is supposed to have taken the purse from Broad's pocket during the trip. A man who was in the machine claims to have seen Collins throw the empty pocketbook away after the ride was over.

Mr. Poulin has also been investigating more burglaries of the cottages "over the notch" in Mendon and there will probably be an arrest in connection with the breaks. Camp owners have been annoyed by acts of vandalism for some years and recently a man was sent to jail for a long term of years for burning a hunting shack. The most recent breaks were at the camps of Mr. H. Landon and P. M. Frost of this city, where dishes, guns and other valuables were taken.

FEE AGREED ON.

For Referee in Bankruptcy Case in Rutland County.

Rutland, Sept. 2.—Judge Harland R. Howe of St. Johnsbury, who was in this city to review the bankruptcy case of the Vermont State company, principally in reference to the accounts of the attorneys and Referee E. H. O'Brien, returned home yesterday, the bills having been adjusted amicably without the necessity of a long hearing. The account of Mr. O'Brien, which was for $1,310.01 was admitted for $1,492.95. The statement that this account amounted to $3000, was based on misinformation furnished by a New York state attorney.

A Woman "Lumberjack."

Lumberjacks are common in Vermont but Rutland county probably has the only woman of the state who shoulders an axe and goes into the woods to earn her livelihood. This woman is Mrs. Kate Duclou Barrett, who lives in a remote part of the town of Mendon. She has, during the present season, cut, saved and peeled 17½ cords of pulpwood, going into the woods alone to do the work. She was in the employ of Walter Balch, receiving $2.50 a cord for the work. The home of the woman axe-wielder is in a territory where there is much lumbering and little agriculture and the men of the vicinity make their living largely in this way.

How to Handle Bees and Not Get Stung. In the current issue of Farm and Fireside Frank G. Odell tells how he handles bees with safety. He can put a hatful of bees on his unprotected head, scoop up a quart and tuck them inside his shirt, next the skin—all this without being stung except rarely as a result of carelessness. The following extract taken from the article gives Mr. Odell's explanation of why he can handle bees with safety:

"That much abused term 'confidence,' which is overworked by politicians, is the biggest asset in handling bees or men."

"Among humans all degrees of intelligence, education, or physical fitness yield alike to mastering impulses. For calm or mental fitness yields to the impulse of the moment. It is much the same with the bees."

"A hiveful of bees dumped in a mass with a sudden jerk which dislodges them from the combs must be imbued with a sense of panic. Bees, being creatures of intelligence, are like humans in that they can think of but one thing at a given time with success. Under the condition set forth, panic usurps the individual sense of self-defense which leads the answer I have none, and thousands of demonstrations under every sort of condition appear to demonstrate the theory."

"Do not gather from this that there is no danger involved in the gentle art of doing stunts with bees. The operator must be 'on edge' every second to avoid unnecessary movements which will anger his pets."

THE ANNUAL MEETING. The annual meeting of the stockholders of BARRE & CHELSEA RAILROAD COMPANY will be held at the general office of the company at Barre, Vt., at 10 o'clock a. m., Thursday, Sept. 16, 1915, for the following purposes:

1. To elect a board of directors for the ensuing year.

2. To transact any other lawful business.

ESTATE OF LEROY S. NORRIS

State of Vermont District of Washington, ss.

The Honorable Probate Court for the District of Washington:

To all persons interested in the estate of Leroy S. Norris, GREETING:

WHEREAS, application in writing has been made to this court by the guardian of Leroy S. Norris, for license to sell the real estate of said ward, viz: Situated in the city of Barre, in said district, on the northeasterly side of the Barre Railroad company's tracks, being all the land on the lower side of said track, representing that the sale thereof for the purpose of putting in proceeds of such sale interest, or investing the same in stocks or other real estate, or using the avails thereof for the benefit of said ward, as the law directs, would be beneficial for said ward.

WHEREUPON, the said court appointed and assigned the 14th day of September, 1915, at the probate office in Montpelier, in said district, to hear and decide upon said application, and to give notice thereof to be given to all persons interested therein, by publishing this order three weeks successively in the Barre Daily Times, a newspaper published at the city of Barre, in said district, which circulates in the neighborhood of those persons interested therein; all which publications shall be previous to the time appointed for the hearing.

THEREFORE, you are hereby notified to appear before said court, at the time and place aforesaid, then and there in said court, to object to the granting of such license, if you see cause.

Given under my hand at Montpelier, in said district, this 12th day of September, 1915.
